CARATTERISTICHE

An exploded view diagram of a mechanical assembly. The main component is a large rectangular plate labeled "ZZ.951200". To its left is a long threaded rod with a hexagonal head. Below the plate is a small cylindrical bush. To the right of the bush is another long threaded rod with a hexagonal head. Further right is a small cylindrical spacer labeled "ZZ.949800". At the bottom right is a U-shaped bracket or base plate with a hole for the threaded rod.
